 Auditorium, Lock Haven

The Department of Art and Art History is hosting a lecture with Bryce McCloud. A printmaker, designer, and social practice artist, the Nashville resident founded the Isle of Printing in 1997 and has created novel works of art and large-scale installations in public and private spaces. The lecture is open to the public.

ONWARD and UPWARD

We believe opportunity belongs to those who are ready to work for it and unafraid to do something great with it.

Wherever you're heading, your climb begins here.
