X. REPORTS*Interim President, Dr. Bashar Hanna

Dr. Hanna reported a couple of announcements to share with the Trustees, as you heard Mr. Jones announced the three universities Bloomsburg, Lock Haven and Mansfield have been accepted into the AASCU Transformation Accelerator Cohort which is funded by the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation. This two-year program has a goal to close the performance gap among our minority students. We have been accepted as one of only 15 institutions nationwide, it is due in part to the efforts made by Albert Jones, Diana Rogers-Atkinson and Marty Wygmans for writing the proposal and was announced at AASCU's annual meeting in November.

Dr. Hanna shared due to the generous donation from a Lock Haven Trustee Margery Dosey by giving 25 Steinway pianos to Lock Haven University that she has authorized to ability to share with both Bloomsburg and Mansfield University as well. She also has authorized donation of 3 Steinway pianos to area high schools. Very thankful to Margery Dosey for her amazing generosity.

Dr. Hanna reported on recent Giving Tuesday in which $22,000 was raised and although below our stated goal we continue to increase donors year over year. Appreciation to everyone who donated and a special mention to the Alumni Association Board members who led by example with 100% contributing. Appreciation to Ms. Wood and Ms. Neill for their amazing job.

To the students, stay focused and please strive for excellence in everything you do and I am sure our faculty will help you in achieving your goals. Many thanks to all of you and all of our supporters.

PACT, Trustee Karen Russell:

Ms. Russell reported PACT is planning a spring conference with information forthcoming.

SGA
